LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT WREATH - PEACE

The Nadeau Family

A: Today we light the second candle of Advent, the candle of Peace. God has a peaceful dream for the world, and we dream it, too. We dream of a peaceful world full of wolves, leopards, and lions eating and sleeping and dancing with lambs, kids, and calves. We dream of a peaceful world where nations come together, where war is a memory, and we eat at one table.

(Light Candle.)

A: We light this candle in Peace.

C: On this day, we remember the Lord of All who brings peace surpassing all understanding.

(Please stand as you are able.)

GATHERING HYMN “Comfort, Comfort Now My People”

ELW 256

1 "Comfort, comfort now my people;
 tell of peace!" So says our God.
 Comfort those who sit in darkness
 mourning under sorrow's load.
 To God's people now proclaim that God's pardon waits for them!
 Tell them that their war is over;
 God will reign in peace forever.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P: Let us pray. O God who brings comfort and joy, when the world baffles us with conflicting messages and puzzling events, speak to our confusion. Comfort us with the knowledge that you are with us in times of clarity and times of confusion. In Jesus's name we pray.

C: Amen.

BEAUTIFUL SAVIOR MISSION STATEMENT

P: Although as individuals we are unique in many and various ways, we gather as a congregation for a common mission.

C: In Jesus's name, we:

Bring Glory to God through fulfilling worship,

Serve God's people, both within our congregation and without,

Learn about the Lord's will for us through sharing and teaching, and Connect within our membership and reach out to connect with others.

CHORAL ANTHEM

“We Wait”

Ruth Elaine Schram

Clarinet: Marilyn Lochner

In the flame of the flickering candle, we see a hint of the starry light that led the shepherds and kings to the Tiny Child.

We wait. We wait.

In the flame of the flickering candle, we see the promise of hope and joy;
the promise of peace, the promise of love in a Baby Boy.

We wait. We wait.

Advent candle, burning bright, gently reflecting heaven's light,
lead us to the Prince of Peace; O guide us to the Perfect Light.

We long to bow before our Savior; we long to hear His precious voice;
we long to worship the King of kings and at his appearance rejoice!

We wait. We wait.

Advent candle, burning bright, gently reflecting heaven's light,
lead us to the Prince of Peace; O guide us to the Perfect Light.

We wait. We wait.

INTRODUCTION TO THE READING

Jay Herbst

READING

Isaiah 11:1-10

A: The reading is from the book of Isaiah, the eleventh chapter.

A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots. The spirit of the Lord shall rest on him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. His delight shall be in the fear of the Lord. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide by what his ears hear; but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked. Righteousness shall be the belt around his waist, and faithfulness the belt around his loins. The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them. The cow and the bear shall graze, their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. The nursing child shall play over the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put its hand on the adder's den. They will not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain; for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea. On that day the root of Jesse shall stand as a signal to the peoples; the nations shall inquire of him, and his dwelling shall be glorious.

A: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

(Please stand as you are able.)

GOSPEL

Matthew 1:18-25

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the first chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Now the birth of Jesus the Messiah took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been engaged to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. Her husband Joseph, being a righteous man and unwilling to expose her to public disgrace, planned to dismiss her quietly. But just when he had resolved to do this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, “Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for the child conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.” All this took place to fulfill what had been spoken by the Lord through the prophet: “Look, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel,” which means, “God is with us.” When Joseph awoke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him; he took her as his wife, but had no marital relations with her until she had borne a son; and he named him Jesus.

P: The Gospel of the Lord

OFFERING

“Lift Up Your Heads”

John A. Behnke

(Please stand as you are able.)

OFFERING PRAYER

P: Together, let us pray:

C: God of our waiting and watching, we offer the gifts of our hearts and our lives to the service of all your people. Prepare the way before us as we meet you in this simple meal, through Christ Jesus, our pathway and our peace. Amen.

THANKSGIVING AT THE TABLE

P: In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me. Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

C: Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

P: Lord, remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray...

C: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

(Please be seated.)

What is Holy Communion?

Holy Communion is a meal instituted by Jesus Christ that involves the receiving of God's forgiveness in a tangible form – we receive Jesus's life-giving body and blood in the presence of bread and wine (or grape juice). The meal is a time of remembrance and celebration.

Who can take part?

Holy Communion is something that not one of us has earned, so we receive it as God's free gift of life. The Church traditionally recommends that people be baptized before taking part, but all that is required is simply a heart that believes in Jesus Christ. If a person of any age wishes to be baptized, please let us know.

How does Holy Communion take place?

If you wish to take part, come forward as directed by the ushers. You will receive the wafer from the Pastor and the wine/grape juice from the communion assistant. If you wish to come forward for a blessing only, please cross your arms across your chest. You may also remain seated if you so wish.

FIRST COMMUNION

This morning is extra special for two of our young members – they will receive their first communion after having received formal instruction. Please allow our young members, along with their family, to commune first. Receiving their first communion this morning are:

Amelia and Lilah Galdes

Michael Burkhardt

POST HOLY COMMUNION BLESSING

P: Together let us pray:

C: Most High God, you have come among us at this table. By the Spirit’s power, form us to be bearers of your word, sharing gifts of mercy and grace with all, through Christ Jesus. Amen.

BENEDICTION

P: The God of hope fill us with all joy and peace in believing, so that we may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit, through Christ Jesus for whom we wait.
